13	Worked well for me in the spring	6/15/2020 8:04 AM
14	Not very intuitive to use; I had to prepare a whole PowerPoint presentation just to demonstrate to students how to use it. Can't see all of the students at once. Lots of connectivity issues.	6/14/2020 4:35 PM
15	Video/Audio delays with multiple speakers (did not have the issue with same user(s) when switched immediately to Zoom)	6/14/2020 11:31 AM
16	In sharing documents the mouse view is not two-way. When students share, they cannot see my mouse pointing things out.	6/13/2020 4:07 PM
17	Not very strong sometimes. Students get kicked out.	6/13/2020 12:32 PM
18	Collaborate didn't seem to be as stable as Zoom and some students seemed to have connectivity issues.	6/13/2020 9:52 AM
19	Not always able to see students. Time tunnel when you share an application or screen. Limited drawing (marking) applications on whiteboard and when sharing files. has been user friendly for the students. Sometimes for no reason you lose your recorded presentations. They were no longer available.	6/12/2020 7:28 PM

24	Limited to how many students you can view at one time, needs a full grid option when lecturing.	6/12/2020 10:15 AM
25	Sometimes I could not share my screen with my students. My students seemed to have more difficulty getting it to work.	6/12/2020 9:18 AM
26	It is much better this summer semester, but in the spring many of my students were having trouble with the audio and video pausing and glitching.	6/12/2020 9:09 AM
27	I understand why, but it would be nice to be able to share Word docx. The course I'm doing has a phenomenal number of pdf handouts. Many of them, I need students to be able to add text to the pdf. Some students have trouble opening pdfs in Adobe Reader, much less inserting text. So I convert pdfs to Word. But then I'm maintaining files in both formats because you can't	6/12/2020 9:00 AM

29	I use Bb Collaborate for class, during which I share a PPT. No major deficiencies.	6/12/2020 8:51 AM
30	We had a very bad connection so that audio was often garbled; I am not sure whether this was due to Collaborate itself or to the WiFi; I frequently use other platforms for video conferencing (Adobe Connect, Skype, etc.) with very little trouble	6/12/2020 7:57 AM
31	none	6/12/2020 7:56 AM

can't control who you see. It is not conducive to a productive learning environment for teaching a visual language.

57	I was limited in the number of students I could see at the same time, which is imperative for my matter of instruction. Also, students had a difficult time staying logged into Collaborate.	6/3/2020 7:26 PM

63	Cannot see all participants and cannot sharescreen and see interpreter or Deaf student.	6/3/2020 3:07 PM
64	Poor sound quality and video. Just recorded a lecture and I thought the video will show at the bottom together with the power point and it didn't so I don't have the video for that lecture and it just takes away the live feel of a lecture.	6/3/2020 2:45 PM
65	Seems like it is tough for new students to use.	6/3/2020 1:33 PM
66	During student presentations, I had a student who could not get his computer to run Collaborate and Dynascope at the same time. It would crash his computer and would take 4-5 minutes to get him back online. It didn't appear to be his computer or internet connection, as both are top of the line. Also, there was no way to zoom in or out with the webcam from the college. Had to get creative in how to show landscape design drawings (on 24" by 36" paper on a drafting table).	6/3/2020 12:39 PM

87	I've had more connectivity issues and lag issues with Collaborate than the other formats. Students disappearing and having to log back on multiple times during a lecture. I also experienced problems with being able to enter the rooms at all when their servers were full.	6/2/2020 4:56 PM
88	Students are dropped. They sometimes complain they cannot hear me/ I am cutting out during live lectures. When I play videos for labs it sometimes works great, and sometimes there are volume issues. Problems with webcam or mic not working on student end. Overall I have found it easy to use and I hope we will still have access to it in the fall! The important part is the easy access for recorded lectures, right within the BB course. If we do switch to something else it needs to be made accessible within each individual BB course so lectures can be accessed easily! Trust me when I say it was hard enough to explain how to find the lectures in the BB class. I cannot imagine how much more difficult it could be if the vids are offsite.	6/2/2020 4:49 PM
89	Often freezing up during 3 hours class online which wasn't very good for my students, my interpreters and me so I didn't like and didn't use it anymore. Can't remember what it looked like and if it's very limited to see my students in the gallery.	6/2/2020 4:12 PM
90	Difficult to have two "presenters" at one time. Difficult to complete a document with students i.e. in classroom I would use the document camera & complete the form with the students while writing on the projected document	6/2/2020 4:10 PM
91	Not incredibly user friendly	6/2/2020 3:55 PM
92	Unable to see all participants at the same time	6/2/2020 2:41 PM
93	From a teaching standpoint, I cannot put students into "breakout rooms" and small groups to work with each other & truly collaborate with each other during a live stream of class. I also cannot see my students when I am screen-sharing at all, so I can't see their responses.	6/2/2020 2:26 PM
94	It seems like there are frequently technical difficulties with Collaborate. It's also AWFUL for screen sharing (i.e. you can't share a Microsoft Word file). I have also had issues with sharing Chrome - for example, I can only share one tab at a time instead of the entire browser window (which is a complete pain for how my course is set up). I spend a lot of time going back to the collaborate tab so I can share a document that is in a different tab every time I click a link. Stop sharing, return to Collaborate, share a different tab, repeat. It's awful.	6/2/2020 2:19 PM
95	not user-friendly	6/2/2020 1:35 PM
96	I used this mostly with students. They had a difficult time using the platform. I'm not sure if it was their technical skill level or the platform itself. Connecting was difficult for many.	6/2/2020 1:29 PM
97	Poor quality when multiple participants have to take a turn talking	6/2/2020 1:16 PM
98	Don't use much. I have trouble with connections. People freeze or they seem to be in robot mode, move and talk slowly	6/2/2020 1:02 PM
99	Not user friendly for first time students.	6/2/2020 12:32 PM
100	Some students have to call in if too many students are logged on Blackboard Collaborative	6/2/2020 12:32 PM
101	Don't use.	6/2/2020 12:25 PM
102	Bb Collaborate has challenges for interpreting services for deaf students. Currently, using Bb and Zoom to remain ADA compliant. Also, problems with students where phone connection is not operable. And it does not work well with Internet Explorer. Operation of tool such as sharing files can be problematic as well.	6/2/2020 12:17 PM
103	Bb Collaborate is to inconsistent, and not very easy to use.	6/2/2020 12:17 PM
104	not enough video displayed at once, unreliable dial in conference support, unpleasant screen app share experience from presenter side	6/2/2020 12:13 PM
105	Clunky as hell	6/2/2020 11:56 AM
106	Inconsistent microphone and speaker success.	6/2/2020 11:56 AM
107	Two things. One - inconsistent connectivity. During a live session, some students report their connection breaks. I in turn (sometimes) get messages during a session that my connection is poor. Two - students entering the wrong "room." This problem occurs mainly at the beginning of	6/2/2020 11:52 AM using Collaborate (evidenced from my Spring Collaborate virtual sessions). Repeatedly messaging Collaborate instructions to students fixes the problem.

108	Only used a few times	6/2/2020 11:42 AM
109	Cannot view all students at the same time. (only up to 4 active at a time), It is often difficult to gauge levels of understanding (or actual participation) without facial interactions. Zoom is best at providing this. Also inability to attach word documents without converting into pdf is annoying. Embedded videos in power point are often unable or difficult to play while still maintaining ability to see the classroom environment. Students have problems staying connected more often and cannot use the dial in phone feature which has been problematic or some.	6/2/2020 11:30 AM
110	Very clunky.	6/2/2020 11:27 AM
111	the share screen does a screen in a screen in a screen also I am not good with writing with a mouse the whiteboard does not work for me	6/2/2020 11:25 AM
112	Connectivity fades in and out at times.	6/2/2020 11:11 AM
113	Some people have issues staying connected but that may be a personal problem!	6/2/2020 11:08 AM
114	We hear about more problems with Collaborate regarding sound and video quality.	6/2/2020 11:04 AM
115	It is unable to accommodate over 4 video chats which is necessary for American Sign Language to be visually involved.	6/2/2020 11:04 AM
116	Could not get my sound to work. Very frustrating.	6/2/2020 11:00 AM
117	1. Confusion among students about how to connect to virtual classroom. 2. Slowness in response when changing screens (PowerPoint slides, etc.). 3. Anytime camera is used to show the participants, it sabotages the connection and often causes the connection to shut down (This has happened to everyone in my classes except for one person.).	6/2/2020 10:59 AM
118	Bb collaborate was very unpredictable during busy traffic times such as 9am. Many students had to call in during these sessions as they kept getting kicked out of session.	6/2/2020 10:54 AM
119	Slow. Disconnects	6/2/2020 10:52 AM
120	hard to figure out how to Join students have had trouble staying online during office hours	6/2/2020 10:43 AM
121	People frequently get disconnected.	6/2/2020 10:39 AM

123	The constant screen moving gives me a headache	6/2/2020 10:36 AM
124	It is very slow, the dial in option often times does not work, and students cannot readily participate as they would in other platforms. I prefer not to use this platform.	6/2/2020 10:35 AM
125	You can only see 4-5 people, unlike Zoom.	6/2/2020 10:29 AM

128	can only see 1-2 students at a time during discussions	6/2/2020 10:24 AM
129	Uploading a recording to a YouTube channel is difficult. Should include a closed captioning tool.	6/2/2020 10:22 AM
130	Spotty connection Not intuitive	6/2/2020 10:20 AM
131	Limited visibility of students, only a few on screen at a time	6/2/2020 10:17 AM
132	Ability to click on windows to see people	6/2/2020 10:17 AM
133	Ease of connection, tools while in collaborative	6/2/2020 10:16 AM
134	I used it once and do not recall. However, no matter what I use, as a MAC user at home, using VDI to connect to campus, my home MAC's camera/microphone cannot connect to my to any of these platforms and I have to do all conference calling on my MAC side, which can get very complicated.	6/2/2020 10:13 AM

135	Limited on type of files we can show to students. We cannot show a word doc, we must copy the word doc into PPT, or a picture file.	6/2/2020 10:13 AM
136	Screen sharing is often slow to come up, students frequently have difficulty connecting, dial up phone service incurs love distance charges	6/2/2020 10:11 AM
137	Limited video camera feeds, telephone audio connection issues (both related to Bb being overloaded and shutting down some services), inability to choose which video cameras to view, file sharing limited to PDF and PPT (can share other types using screen share), no live captioning without a person to do it, must live in Blackboard	6/2/2020 10:10 AM
138	The dial in option was frequently unavailable during the spring semester. The platform would crash if more than three tabs were open on my laptop.	6/2/2020 10:09 AM
139	Connectivity is inconsistent.	6/2/2020 10:06 AM
140	Students have trouble logging on	6/2/2020 10:05 AM
141	Slight connectivity issues that weren't WiFi related	6/2/2020 10:04 AM
142	I have not used this platform enough to evaluate	6/2/2020 10:04 AM
143	Collaborative only lets you see 3 students at a time, although I like the embedded element.	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
144	Collaborate has worked very well for my purposes, I haven't found any deficiencies.	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
145	Can't see the whole class - plus many students have trouble with audio connections	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
146	not enough people seen on the screen at the same time	6/2/2020 10:00 AM
147	NA	6/2/2020 9:59 AM
148	Blackboard Collaborate seems to work pretty well in my experience. I wish there were a way to easily break students up into separate small groups, but none of the platforms listed seem to offer that.	6/2/2020 9:58 AM
149	Students had a very difficult time getting onto this platform. I tried to tell them to use Google Chrome but they still had a difficult time.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
150	You can't see everyone at once, and you can't choose whom to look at if they're not speaking and not one of the four screens Collaborate chooses to show.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
151	It's glitchy. The students did not find it user friendly.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
152	The camera keeps jumping from person to person without a reason and you cannot see all the participants.	6/2/2020 9:56 AM
153	Cannot see all students at one time on the screen if using for class-sharing of screen, etc. is more complicated than others	6/2/2020 9:54 AM
154	glitchy, got kicked out when screen sharing, lots of audio issues	6/2/2020 9:54 AM

45	I really like Microsoft Teams, however, others encountered issues with connecting to the meeting...so, I went back to using Zoom as most were used to using this method already.	6/2/2020 2:41 PM
46	I think Teams is perhaps the LEAST user friendly Microsoft application there is. It is not very intuitive. I have used this platform the least of all of them, so don't have specific deficiencies to share.	6/2/2020 2:19 PM
47	nobody will freaking use it! you set it up and add people and then they ignore it.	6/2/2020 1:35 PM

I don't like that you can't control the recording and sharing of screen without changing everyone's status. It seems to work okay; video is not as clear.	6/2/2020 1:02 PM

58	Teams is meant for our domain only. Microsoft Stream, which will be available when we move to the new A3 licensing, is meant for larger meetings and streaming. It is not as simple to use as the other options though. It really is meant for live streaming and video sharing. It does offer automatically subtitle generation. Because you use apps like OBS to stream, you have wayyyy more flexibility with input and output from different sources.	6/2/2020 11:04 AM
59	My least favorite option. Unreliable with video feed.	6/2/2020 10:54 AM
60	My implementation of Teams does not include telephone integration, so all participants join via client, there is no dial-in audio only option (in my implementation)	6/2/2020 10:43 AM

13	I was in a meeting with WebEx on Friday and it worked terribly. We actually just abandoned the site and used a conference call.	6/15/2020 8:04 AM
14	Unclear which mode to use when connecting; students choosing to use browser-based client instead of stand-alone client don't have the same functionality, which makes training them how to use it difficult -- like they can't raise their hand, can't share screen. It's difficult to learn as a presenter; lag between audio and video. Takes an excessive amount of time to generate a recording of session. Icons unclear -- for example, icons for muted and unmuted audio are the same: a microphone with a slash through it. Tons of connection problems during BOT meetings, reflected badly on the College.	6/14/2020 4:35 PM

89	THE WORST-please stop using for BOT meetings. Not good functions for education	6/2/2020 9:54 AM

1	This platform is the most familiar to us, however, Teams might work as well.	6/15/2020 2:51 PM
2	It seems the most reliable	6/15/2020 2:19 PM
3	Zoom is what I'm most familiar with.	6/15/2020 1:18 PM
4	Because we use BB	6/15/2020 12:55 PM
5	Zoom has never given me any issues.	6/15/2020 12:20 PM
6	I think I've had a better experience, overall, with Zoom. But, I am interested in trying MS Teams as well as other options.	6/15/2020 12:00 PM
7	easy for students, video recordings are part of course	6/15/2020 11:25 AM
8	I don't have to waste time downloading and reloading my recordings it to BB. Very big time savings!	6/15/2020 10:52 AM
9	Zoom is best for meetings. It's easy to use, available on many different platforms (easy to use from computer, mobile, etc.)	6/15/2020 10:31 AM
10	More user friendly.	6/15/2020 10:27 AM
11	Seems more a professional product, mature, and aimed at the business market. It seems stable and robust. Used by Miami Regionals and other institutions state-wide for online programs over several years.	6/15/2020 10:12 AM
12	Ease of use and familiarity, ability to easily share screen, manage participants, record sessions	6/15/2020 9:47 AM
13	Less "Glitchy" than some of the others. Also, it is a good resume item for our students to be able to say they have experience with Teams. Finally, I find the chat feature that is always on to be helpful for students to collaborate with projects and class questions.	6/15/2020 9:26 AM
14	I most comfortable with Zoom.	6/15/2020 9:23 AM
15	I feel like WebEx is the next most ubiquitous platform after Zoom, but Zoom has too many security issues.	6/15/2020 9:21 AM
16	I like the breakout rooms where students can work in groups. The instructor can enter the room and talk just to that group.	6/15/2020 9:07 AM
17	Simple, easy to use, versatile. Sadly it isn't integrated with Blackboard.	6/15/2020 9:06 AM
18	I like the features of it best	6/15/2020 9:00 AM
19	Ease of use and scheduling for recurring appointments.	6/15/2020 8:42 AM
20	Most familiar with this	6/15/2020 8:42 AM
21	Collaborate worked well for my classes in the spring.	6/15/2020 8:04 AM
22	It seems to be the most user friendly and intuitive; the most widely used already by faculty who gave up on Collaborate; and widely used by students. Seems reliable. Icons for all the tools participants need are clearly visible at the bottom of the window at all times.	6/14/2020 4:35 PM
23	Has been the most stable for audio/video & required less trouble-shooting than the others (user-end issues)	6/14/2020 11:31 AM
24	Most experience with it	6/13/2020 4:07 PM
25	Zoom is better than Bb Collaborate in my opinion. However, I have not had training or used the other platforms.	6/13/2020 12:32 PM
26	WebEx is a very solid platform.	6/13/2020 9:52 AM
27	Most familiar	6/12/2020 10:41 PM
28	Ease of use. Blackboard would be OK if the deficiencies are corrected.	6/12/2020 7:28 PM
29	I haven't tried the other platforms. I would be willing to based on other users experience and recommendations.	6/12/2020 3:35 PM

30	that's the one I use here. MS teams I use at my work and I am not a fan.	6/12/2020 12:49 PM
31	Convenience and familiarity	6/12/2020 11:16 AM
32	At this point I am most familiar with it and the majority of the other organizations I work with utilize this platform. However, I am comfortable with MS Teams as well.	6/12/2020 10:44 AM
33	Only one I have used so far. Not much help here comparing, but Zoom appears robust.	6/12/2020 10:25 AM
34	Ease of use	6/12/2020 10:15 AM
35	easy to navigate	6/12/2020 9:44 AM
36	It is the platform that is most intuitive and comfortable to use. It seems to work well with small and large groups. There is no limit to how many people you can see on a screen but you might have to scroll. I like the breakout sessions.	6/12/2020 9:18 AM
37	I don't have much experience with the other options. However, I prefer Collaborate to Zoom.	6/12/2020 9:09 AM
38	I have taken the time to become more proficient at using Collaborate and calling their tech folk to make changes to my laptop to enable all features. Basically, Chrome is the only browser they recommend. I'm told they are working on other browsers. Firefox seems to be a close second. I think my students need the same checklist for their laptops to enable a good experience. For example, clearing out all cookies/cache, assuring the most up to date versions of chrome and Java are a few things we checked in privacy and security. Also allowing audio and video. Is there any way help desk could clear out cookies/cache before giving out laptops? Maybe they already do. I can talk my students through the rest of the things we checked when I talked to Collaborate Ultra tech. I suspect the Collaborate folk were in the midst of upgrades when covid-19 hit. The activity I like to do is have a class document where each of my breakout groups contributes to one document-that is, type in part of a chart for example. At the end of class I'm not sure how to save the document and share it. I could record it. If you know of a smooth way to do that, I'm open to suggestions.	6/12/2020 9:00 AM
39	Ease of access for external folks.	6/12/2020 8:51 AM
40	Working with international students, Collaborate is easy to use and accessible through the course Blackboard site. This is my first time using Collaborate, so I want some time to experiment with it.	6/12/2020 7:57 AM
41	Students have easy access through Blackboard and the Recording of the lectures and labs are easy to access.	6/12/2020 7:56 AM
42	It is the only one that I have experience with	6/11/2020 6:24 PM
43	Seems to be easier to use especially for lectures	6/11/2020 1:03 PM
44	This is what I am familiar with.	6/11/2020 11:42 AM
45	It works and students tend to understand it well.	6/11/2020 11:40 AM
46	Zoom is easy to use, no bandwidth issues, allows the leader to see most of the participants at any time. It seems to be user friendly on the participant side of things as well.	6/11/2020 11:38 AM
47	I haven't used them all enough to provide in-depth data. I have been on meetings in all and for ongoing meeting groups I like Teams as you can sharing information and it stays in group. I like seeing entire group. Do we have the band width (internet strength) to support these effectively?	6/11/2020 11:24 AM
48	Easy to use,	6/11/2020 11:24 AM
49	Most familiar. . Was using Zoom before the Pandemic.	6/11/2020 11:16 AM
50	It's built for academics and as long as we are using Bb as our course delivery of choice, I think we should stick with it. I've never seen students have a problem with it that wasn't bandwidth related.	6/10/2020 9:33 AM
51	Very reliable, fast, ease of connectivity, national familiarity	6/10/2020 9:17 AM
52	Students are familiar with Zoom and it is easy to use!	6/5/2020 4:07 PM
53	Just from what I've heard, it looks and sounds like it functions way better.	6/5/2020 3:07 PM
54	I like collaborate because course recordings can be saved directly into your blackboard course.	6/5/2020 11:44 AM

This makes it easiest to direct students to recordings if they have missed a live lecture. However I like Zoom because students seem very familiar with it. I also like for students to be able to set up zoom sessions between themselves to work on group projects. Would it be Possible to save zoom recordings within the blackboard class so that they could be launched for students that need to review? But I would like Best is information on how to save recording files in a format that can be easily transferred between platforms and also just saved for future use on a computer.

55	I have used it the most. It is a part of Blackboard which is already the main tool I use to communicate with students.	6/5/2020 7:10 AM
56	I have had a smooth and pleasant experience teaching with Collaborate. I like to have the students only have to worry about being on Blackboard to attend class, find resources, get assignments, see announcements, and complete course work. I believe it is less stressful for the student to have everything in one place. Collaborate has worked well for our purposes and has many features I use and look forward to using.	6/4/2020 6:51 PM
57	its easy and works. students can record, we can share screens, markup our screens and documents live.	6/4/2020 1:00 PM
58	It is secure and an excellent remote, real-time collaboration tool, and it works for meetings as well. A side bonus is that many students who learn to use WebEx will have another tool in their skills bag when they go to apply for jobs because many businesses in the corporate world use WebEx today for meetings and collaboration.	6/4/2020 12:24 PM
59	explained above. Thanks	6/4/2020 12:12 PM
60	Again, it is easy to use and learn. Also, it interacts well with my calendar app making it easy to schedule meetings directly without having to touch two different tools. I send a calendar link to scholars, peers, etc and they pick an open time, and magically it appears on my calendar along with the Zoom link.	6/4/2020 11:48 AM
61	Very familiar with Zoom; I've personally used it for years; It's very easy to use (my 80 year old Mother in law picked it up very easily); Connection seems good; I like the ability to share screen for collaboration	6/4/2020 11:45 AM
62	User-friendly and most widely used	6/4/2020 9:51 AM
63	Ease of use, flexibility, consistency. Not subject to bandwidth issues.	6/4/2020 9:21 AM
64	I've seen Zoom used with interpreting services, and presentations went well, had break out rooms. Students think it is easy. Deaf community has much training available with using Zoom.	6/4/2020 8:43 AM
65	I can see everyone on Zoom. I can record and download my class lectures. I can divide my students into groups in different rooms. It is great!	6/4/2020 12:34 AM
66	Currently, Zoom is the best fit for teaching a visual language. Since my subject matter requires seeing students face to face and being able to make corrections immediately in order to not allow poor signing habits to develop, this has proven the clearest, easiest platform that I have used so far.	6/3/2020 7:26 PM
67	Can see students all at once and easier for visual for me as I'm Deaf so prefer see all not limited	6/3/2020 5:16 PM
68	Probably because it is the platform I am most familiar with.	6/3/2020 5:12 PM
69	user friendly, sharing capability...	6/3/2020 4:23 PM
70	Comfortable in using zoom	6/3/2020 3:55 PM
71	Zoom is a fairly reliable and clear platform with features that make it user friendly. Most people are comfortable with this across the board. Much better than BB Collaborate	6/3/2020 3:52 PM
72	Much more user friendly. Better connection consistency. Better recording playback for students.	6/3/2020 3:46 PM
73	Zoom is the only platform that I have found that has the best quality for interpreter/ interpreter training purposes. The other platforms have so much lag and grainy quality that it is almost impossible to use for our purposes.	6/3/2020 3:42 PM
74	Zoom allows viewers to see everyone and to see people even when ShareScreen function is being used (this is necessary for working with Deaf people who use sign language).	6/3/2020 3:07 PM

75	It's just easy and I have grown comfortable with it and it handles live classes well and office hours.	6/3/2020 2:45 PM
76	comfort and ease of working with Zoom	6/3/2020 2:40 PM
77	I like the security of Zoom and it is really easy to use.	6/3/2020 1:33 PM
78	Don't have enough experience yet to answer this question.	6/3/2020 12:39 PM
79	I've only used Zoom. I can't remember what platform Dr. Posey & the Board uses.	6/3/2020 12:21 PM
80	I can see everyone. It is easy to navigate.	6/3/2020 11:41 AM
81	The program is already integrated into Bb.	6/3/2020 11:33 AM
82	Excellent tool for all meeting and lecture formats. Love the recording option. User friendly with great IT support.	6/3/2020 11:31 AM
83	I have it as a button on Blackboard for my MUS -115 course. It worked very well when we went on line to finish the Spring 20 semester.	6/3/2020 10:54 AM
84	Seems a little more stable and is easy to use. Have not used it to deliver a course though.	6/3/2020 10:38 AM
85	Best tool to integrate with Blackboard materials. Students only have to be familiar with the LMS to use	6/3/2020 10:10 AM
86	familiarity	6/3/2020 10:07 AM
87	Zoom is easy to use. I have never had a problem getting onto the platform. CCP students are more familiar with Zoom. It can be used on computer, tablets and cell phones with out a problem.	6/3/2020 9:55 AM
88	Zoom was the first video conferencing platform I used for purposes outside of work on a regular basis. I enjoy having a personal code to share with others.	6/3/2020 9:45 AM
89	It seems to be the simplest to use. It has virtual backgrounds. It has easy to use recordings	6/3/2020 9:45 AM
90	I think Microsoft teams is the easiest platform to set meeting up since it can be done right from Outlook. I would encourage the use of Teams or Zoom as I feel a larger percentage of the public would be familiar. In Admission we work with people who would be very unfamiliar with Blackboard. However, thanks to increased advertising i think most people have at least heard of teams/zoom. I also feel like WebEx is a little to formal for the small group discussions we have in admission.	6/3/2020 9:43 AM
91	Various Components	6/3/2020 9:41 AM
92	Zoom has been easy to use. I will be using for Co-op Orientations for breakout rooms. One plus for Microsoft Teams is the ease of connecting this into our email and calendar. Easy Links to connect.	6/3/2020 9:40 AM
93	Familiar and easy to use.	6/3/2020 9:37 AM
94	Zoom is so easy to use.	6/3/2020 9:30 AM
95	Majority of my experience is with Zoom & Collaborate and Zoom seems to be more stable/better supported overall	6/3/2020 9:15 AM
96	Common platform used throughout the United States. (Most conferences and classrooms.	6/3/2020 9:11 AM
97	it provides the needed functionality for my meetings	6/3/2020 8:57 AM
98	It works for me	6/3/2020 7:34 AM
99	Easy to log into. Can see everyone's face. Chat option is nice too.	6/3/2020 6:59 AM
100	I think it makes the most sense for the students to use; it is right there and they can find it, and recorded sessions are automatically added and also easy to find. Zoom would be my second choice if you were having face-to-face meetings, but teaching math it has been easier for me to use blackboard Collaborate as I don't have a whiteboard to use to help explain math concepts.	6/2/2020 11:42 PM
101	I like blackboard collaborate because it is a part of the course and easy to access.	6/2/2020 8:35 PM

VIDEO CONFERENCING SOFTWARE PREFERENCES

102	Zoom is easy to use, allows screen sharing, and does not require users to have accounts set up. It is the new normal.	6/2/2020 7:52 PM
103	Able to create separate channels	6/2/2020 5:53 PM
104	It was the first one I learned on and used; but am good with learning to effectively use both zoom and blackboard ultra	6/2/2020 5:45 PM
105	Zoom is easy to join and it allows many people to be visible at the same time (more than Blackboard). I have only been an attendee, so it needs to have some kind of spontaneous interface (like Blackboard Collaborate's whiteboard feature) to stay my #1 choice.	6/2/2020 5:31 PM
106	Reliable, easy to use, can see all participants	6/2/2020 5:25 PM
107	It seems to have the least problems with connectivity. Ability to see all participants camera views at once (Collaborate only allows a few) which is ideal for a "classroom" feel	6/2/2020 4:56 PM
108	Built into the BB course so it is easier for students to access, and I can build meta courses and combine several class sections together and house the videos for all sections there for playback.	6/2/2020 4:49 PM
109	It's easy, reliable, is something students are likely to use in the work world. We ran several of our online Goldman Sachs sessions on it and it went very well.	6/2/2020 4:36 PM
110	Up to this point it has been the one easiest to use with my students and colleagues.	6/2/2020 4:10 PM
111	User friendly and never have connection issues	6/2/2020 3:55 PM
112	The integration into blackboard especially since everything is already available to the student makes life so much easier. Not being required to manage multiple software for each class session is nice. Also the ability to record and immediately publish the session when complete is a huge selling point.	6/2/2020 2:41 PM
113	I only choose Zoom over Microsoft teams because I think most people are more comfortable using it. I really like the ease of teams and the ability to record and document the meetings easily.	6/2/2020 2:41 PM
114	I also teach at another college and have used Zoom there. The breakout rooms/small groups, ability for students to record & thus submit group work during class, the video quality has been much better for my work with American Sign Language and with my Deaf clients to be able to see the messages being communicated, and my students seem to be able to access Zoom from a variety of devices, including phones, tablets, laptops, etc.	6/2/2020 2:26 PM
115	I am most comfortable with Zoom partially because I have used it the most. It is user friendly (easy to walk others through as well). Screen sharing and room moderation is easy. As the "IT go-to" person for my group, I find it to be the easiest to troubleshoot/help others with technical difficulties when they arise.	6/2/2020 2:19 PM
116	Because I am familiar with it and have used it from the moderator side and participant side.	6/2/2020 2:16 PM
117	Because it's the simplest tool.	6/2/2020 1:35 PM
118	Mostly I chose this because I have used Zoom for many meetings and it was an easy platform to use. I have little experience with other platforms and so don't have a good comparison.	6/2/2020 1:29 PM
119	Reliability and versatility	6/2/2020 1:16 PM
120	I can see all the students who are in the class even if you have to scroll back and forth. Easy to share the screen, recording, etc. I have used it a lot so feel most familiar with the platform.	6/2/2020 1:02 PM
121	It is the only platform that has consistently provided a Lab experience that simulates our traditional face to face delivery.	6/2/2020 12:58 PM
122	Teams was easy to use and most intuitive for new users. Can explain to new user while in a meeting and get issues resolved very easily.	6/2/2020 12:32 PM
123	Familiarity	6/2/2020 12:32 PM
124	Seems easiest and no cost for users	6/2/2020 12:25 PM
125	Connection and access for students and easy to use for virtual meetings.	6/2/2020 12:17 PM

VIDEO CONFERENCING SOFTWARE PREFERENCES

126	I've been using Zoom and Teams for some time now, and they are much easier to Navigate. Students can also access them from all over, unlike Bb Collaborate, where you have to log in each time. For the other two, you don't need to do that.	6/2/2020 12:17 PM
127	Simplicity, ease of use, universal acceptance	6/2/2020 12:13 PM
128	Ease of use and most well known for most users	6/2/2020 11:56 AM
129	Works smoothly. Almost no training needed. Students seem most familiar with it. Has all the bells and whistles I need to successfully teach my courses.	6/2/2020 11:56 AM
130	It has a better presentation view of both presenter and participants. It has more options for screen and session customization.	6/2/2020 11:52 AM
131	Never had a problem with connectivity.	6/2/2020 11:42 AM
132	More sophisticated	6/2/2020 11:27 AM
133	sharing screens with Zoom is much clearer~	6/2/2020 11:25 AM
134	Since it is part of my Blackboard courses and their is a connectivity tab on the menu it is easier for students to access.	6/2/2020 11:11 AM
135	It works well, it's included with the courses already, you don't have to have an app.	6/2/2020 11:08 AM
136	N/A	6/2/2020 11:04 AM
137	It works well , the students ask for it because they use it and are used to it.	6/2/2020 11:00 AM
138	More success with Zoom than with BbCollaborate. But I don't want to use anything that the school will not offer user support for!!!!!!	6/2/2020 10:59 AM
139	Integration with Bb, and frankly, it's the one I trained to use. It works fine. Having to constantly re-train is confusing and annoying. Admittedly, this is confusing for students too, so I am happy to hear that the college is doing to designate ONE platform to use.	6/2/2020 10:52 AM
140	User and presenter friendly. Doesn't disconnect host or participants randomly. I like being able to see all participants and to see the box around the participant who is talking.	6/2/2020 10:52 AM
141	absolutely no glitches, connection problems, etc since March 2020	6/2/2020 10:43 AM
142	Familiarity. Haven't used BB Collaboration so I lack insight into its capabilities.	6/2/2020 10:43 AM
143	Easy to use; minimal disconnections; can host large groups easily.	6/2/2020 10:39 AM
144	most user friendly	6/2/2020 10:39 AM
145	User friendly, viewing options.	6/2/2020 10:36 AM
146	Siri easy to use, it's not very difficult for students or colleagues who are not tech savvy to use, and the bandwidth seems to be pretty good.	6/2/2020 10:35 AM
147	Zoom seems to be the easiest to use. I like that Collaborate is a Blackboard product.	6/2/2020 10:29 AM
148	I asked several of my students; they ALL prefer ZOOM. They know how to use it since it's how they connected with their friends during the pandemic. They say it's easy to download, use and navigate. I used Bb Collaborate in my Spring classes. I am using Zoom in my Summer math classes. The "Share" and "Whiteboard" features are superior to Bb Collaborate. I am paying the monthly fee for the best use of my class time online.	6/2/2020 10:27 AM
149	Ease of use, familiar to everyone.	6/2/2020 10:26 AM
150	ease of use and works well for large groups	6/2/2020 10:24 AM
151	We need a better LMS to answer the question of which platform to use. They need to be integrated and Blackboard should not be our LMS. Our students deserve something better.	6/2/2020 10:22 AM
152	Easy to use and access across various devices	6/2/2020 10:20 AM
153	Ease of use, connected to the Office Suite so all students have access	6/2/2020 10:17 AM
154	It works for my needs.	6/2/2020 10:17 AM

VIDEO CONFERENCING SOFTWARE PREFERENCES

155	Can personalize and have many options for students to connect and interact. More reliable.	6/2/2020 10:16 AM
156	Simple to choose, and students picked up the usage of it quite quickly.	6/2/2020 10:15 AM
157	Easiest to connect to if I am sent a meeting ID and (if used) password. When I am sent a link to the meeting, because I have an account, I have to go through some extra steps to connect and it always downloads zoom before I can enter a meeting.	6/2/2020 10:13 AM
158	Convenience and I have a reasonable expectation that every student has access	6/2/2020 10:13 AM
159	It is fairly intuitive to use, there is the ability to have a virtual background, connection has never been an issue for me	6/2/2020 10:11 AM
160	If supported with institutional subscription, it seems to be user friendly and meets most needs. Has a webinar delivery function as well that I've been in and it worked very well for delivery or instructional content.	6/2/2020 10:10 AM
161	Its built into the system we already use and is easy to use	6/2/2020 10:10 AM
162	It was a toss up between one and two. Both were user friendly.	6/2/2020 10:09 AM
163	Reliability and accessibility. Can schedule and add to the student's College Outlook 365 calendar so they just have to click on the appointment. Plus it is within the umbrella of Office 365 apps that students already have access to through their college login to surgemail. Need to consider how these video conferencing tools can be monitored by IT for legality purposes.	6/2/2020 10:06 AM
164	BB Collaborate is a great tool for recording lecture presentations and holding live sessions with our students. It is simple to use and easy to access for both instructors and students.	6/2/2020 10:05 AM
165	Seems the most accessible and stable.	6/2/2020 10:05 AM
166	Zoom has had the least amount of issues. Anyone can access the link downloading zoom takes less than 10 seconds. Least amount of interference. Zoom is bar far the best platform I have used.	6/2/2020 10:04 AM
167	It is the platform that I know. However, I am willing to use whatever platform the college chooses	6/2/2020 10:04 AM
168	I prefer blackboard when tracking for a course but need zoom for virtual office hours and meetings.	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
169	Specialized for educational purposes, integrated with existing Blackboard platform, allows delivery of lectures, coordination of break out sessions, presentation of PDF and PPT materials, and built-in whiteboard. Classroom is automatically restricted to Blackboard students, so no concerns about outside interference (e.g. Zoom bombing). I've considered looking at Teams in the fall as a platform for facilitating group work/interaction between students outside of lecture times.	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
170	To see the whole class at one time. Needed for testing students so that I can proctor.	6/2/2020 10:01 AM
171	easy to use and explain to students	6/2/2020 10:00 AM
172	Easy to use	6/2/2020 9:59 AM
173	It's the only one I've used at work my personal meetings with church groups, etc.	6/2/2020 9:59 AM
174	ZOOM - Easy to use, versatile and well-known, very easy access for all parties, typically runs well without technical issue, flexible options for scheduling, meeting management, tools for host and participants, option for participant screen sharing is quite useful.	6/2/2020 9:58 AM
175	Easy application to use	6/2/2020 9:58 AM
176	WebEx seems to offer a lot of useful functionality, especially with the Rooms function that makes office hours, conferencing, and other meetings function much like they would in person.	6/2/2020 9:58 AM
177	Just the one that I use the most and am the most comfortable with.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
178	It's intuitive, well known, widely used, and has few known issues.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
179	It's smoother with video and sound.	6/2/2020 9:57 AM
180	Zoom is easier to log in than Bb Collaborate.	6/2/2020 9:56 AM

VIDEO CONFERENCING SOFTWARE PREFERENCES

181	Zoom is the easiest to use for meetings AND educational purposes	6/2/2020 9:54 AM
182	students can use it with direct link. no issues for me. only concern is that I'm not sure how to send or make the recording available for those who missed the meeting.	6/2/2020 9:54 AM
183	Most of us are very comfortable with it after spring semester. It worked great for our needs, and keeping it would mean that everyone wouldn't need to train on a new system.	6/1/2020 1:18 PM
